Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Investment Objective and Strategies

Investment Objective: Fidelity U.S. Bond Currency Neutral Multi-Asset Base Fund (Fund) aims to provide a steady flow of income by investing primarily in U.S. fixed income securities. The Fund invests substantially all of its assets in securities of Fidelity U.S. Bond Multi Asset Base Fund (Underlying Fund).

Strategies: When buying and selling fixed income securities, the portfolio managers of the Underlying Fund analyze each security's features, its current price relative to alternatives in the market, the credit quality of the issuer, short-term trading opportunities resulting from market inefficiencies, and potential future valuations. The Underlying Fund may invest in fixed income securities of any quality or term. The Underlying Fund may invest in U.S. and non-U.S. fixed income securities. The Underlying Fund may from time to time invest in asset-backed securities and mortgage-backed securities. Both the Fund and the Underlying Fund may also hold cash.

Risk

The risks associated with investing in this Fund remain as discussed in the prospectus. Any changes to the Fund over the period have not affected the overall level of risk of the Fund.

The Fund is suitable for medium-term investors who want to seek income from their investment while seeking to lower their risk of currency fluctuations between the U.S. and Canadian dollars. To invest in the Fund, investors should be willing to accept a low level of risk. The suitability of the investment has not changed from what has been disclosed in the prospectus.

Results of Operations

Securities of this Fund are only available for purchase by other funds and accounts managed or advised by Fidelity, and are not available for public purchase.

Fidelity U.S. Bond Currency Neutral Multi-Asset Base Fund, Series O, returned 3.4%, for the year ended June 30, 2024. During the review period, Global Fixed Income, as represented by the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Bond Index - Hedged CAD, returned 3.4% (in Canadian dollar terms).

Market overview:

Global investment-grade bonds, as broadly represented by the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Bond Index, returned 4.4% in Canadian dollar terms and 0.9% in U.S. dollar terms, for the one-year period ended June 30, 2024.

Global investment-grade bonds advanced in Canadian and U.S. dollar terms over the period under review. High yield bonds outperformed investment-grade, benefitting from higher yields and tighter credit spreads in both U.S. and European fixed income markets. Government bond yields adjusted in response to a shift in macroeconomic indicators, and geopolitical tensions continued to weigh on investors' sentiment. Expectations of an early interest rate cut were scaled back as inflation remained a central concern across developed economies. The U.S. Federal Reserve (the Fed) maintained its benchmark interest rates, the Fed Funds rate, in the target range of 5.25%-5.50% after increasing rates by 25 basis points in July 2023. In the U.S., annual headline inflation continued to ease to 3.3% in May 2024, while in Europe, the harmonized index of consumer prices fell from an annual rate of 5.3% in July 2023 to 2.4% in April 2024. This prompted the ECB to announce its first interest rate reduction since 2019, as it cut the interest rates by 25 basis points to 3.75% in June 2024. However, in the U.S., the Fed maintained its policy rate, as inflation remained elevated beyond its 2% target. Elsewhere, the Bank of Japan ended its negative interest rate policy and enacted the first rate increase in 17 years, raising the interest rate from -0.1% to a range of 0%-0.1%, in March 2024. In contrast, investors remained concerned about the economic outlook, despite signs of recovery in the first quarter of 2024 and the People's Bank of China's supportive policy measures to stimulate the economy hit by prolonged real estate crisis and rising unemployment.

Factors affecting performance:

The Fund outperformed its benchmark, the Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index - Hedged CAD, which returned 1.7% for the review period. The Underlying Fund's investments in corporate bonds contributed to relative returns, particularly in the financial institutions sector. Investments in asset-backed securities also contributed to relative returns. In contrast, the Underlying Fund's exposure to U.S. Treasuries detracted from relative returns.

Portfolio changes:

During the review period, the portfolio managers of the Underlying Fund decreased exposure to the financial institutions and industrials sectors, while increasing exposure to U.S. Treasuries due to relative valuations, in the managers' view.

Derivatives disclosure:

During the period, the Fund engaged in forward foreign currency contracts, in a manner consistent with its investment objectives and strategies, to hedge against the effect of currency fluctuations on the investment returns of the Fund. The use of forward contracts in this manner does not completely eliminate the impact of currency fluctuations on returns and the Fund's returns will differ from the local currency returns of the Underlying Fund's investments.

Recent Developments

The Underlying Fund's portfolio managers, Jeffrey Moore and Michael Plage, remain optimistic given the compelling yield the bond market is offering, in the managers' views. While the portfolio managers have historically looked to corporate bonds and other credit markets to add yield in the portfolio, the portfolio managers are currently excited about the value opportunity in risk-free U.S. Treasury securities. The portfolio managers believe that investment-grade corporate spreads are nearly as narrow as they have been in the past 25 years. The opportunity cost of an underweight position is now very low, in the managers' view. The portfolio managers prefer to capture 85% of the yield of investment-grade credit, with no credit risk, by owning U.S. Treasury securities instead. As a result, the portfolio managers reduced their credit risk while increasing their interest rate risk.

Effective September 19, 2023, Anne Bell of Mississauga, Ontario, became a member of the Independent Review Committee (IRC).

Independent Review Committee, Cross-Trading and In specie Transactions

Independent Review Committee

Fidelity has established an independent review committee (IRC) that acts as an impartial and independent committee to review and provide recommendations or, if appropriate, approvals respecting conflict of interest matters referred to it by Fidelity. The report is available at www.fidelity.ca or at the securityholder's request at no cost by contacting Fidelity, using the contact information available on the final page of this document.

Cross-Trading and In specie Transactions

The Fund received the approval and standing instructions from the IRC in order to:

- (i) engage in cross-trading, which is a form of interfund trading. A cross-trade occurs when the Fund purchases or sells portfolio securities from or to another Fund, a U.S. fund or a separately managed account, through a broker;
- (ii) permit the Fund, in certain circumstances, to purchase and redeem Fund securities in consideration for securities rather than cash of another investment fund not governed by NI 81-102, or a separately managed account, managed by Fidelity.

For each of the transactions in (i) and (ii) above, the IRC's standing instructions require Fidelity to act in accordance with its associated policies and procedures and applicable law, and comply with the conditions in each of the exemptive relief orders received, which, in the case of cross-trading, requires additional periodic reporting to the Ontario Securities Commission. The standing instructions also require that investment decisions in respect of these transactions (a) are free from any influence by an entity related to Fidelity and without taking into account any consideration relevant to an entity related to Fidelity; (b) represent the business judgment of Fidelity uninfluenced by considerations other than the best interests of the Fund; (c) comply with the applicable policies and procedures of Fidelity; and (d) achieve a fair and reasonable result for the Fund.

^B This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual and/or unaudited interim financial statements. The net assets attributable to securityholders per security presented in the financial statements may differ from the net asset value calculated for fund pricing purposes. An explanation of these differences can be found in the notes to financial statements.

^C Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of securities outstanding at the relevant time. The increase (decrease) from operations is based on the weighted average number of securities outstanding over the financial period. This table is not intended to be a reconciliation of beginning to ending net assets per security.

^D Distributions were paid in cash or reinvested in additional securities of the Fund, or both, and excludes any applicable distributions of management fee reduction to securityholders. Distributions are presented based on management's best estimate of the tax character.

^E This information is provided as at period end of the year shown.

^F Prior period amounts may have been adjusted.

^G The trading expense ratio represents total commissions, other portfolio transaction costs and dividends and interest expense on securities sold short expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period, including the Fund's pro-rata share of estimated trading costs incurred in any underlying investment fund, if applicable.

^H The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio adviser manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher the Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high portfolio turnover rate and the performance of the Fund. The portfolio turnover rate is calculated based on the lesser of purchases or sales of securities divided by the weighted average market value of portfolio securities owned by the Fund, excluding short-term securities. The portfolio turnover rate includes any proceeds from a short sale in the value of sales of securities and the cost of covering a short sale in the value of purchases of securities. For periods greater than six months, but less than a full fiscal year, the portfolio turnover rate is annualized. The portfolio turnover rate excludes any adjustment for in-kind transactions.
