Caution Regarding Forward-looking Statements

Certain portions of this report, including, but not limited to, “Results of Operations” and “Recent Developments”, may contain forward-looking statements about the Fund, including its strategy, risks, expected performance and condition. Forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, that depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or that include words such as “expects”, “anticipates”, “intends”, “plans”, “believes”, “estimates” and similar forward-looking expressions or negative versions thereof.

In addition, any statement that may be made concerning future performance, strategies or prospects, and possible future Fund action, is also a forward-looking statement. Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and projections about future events and are inherently subject to, among other things, risks, uncertainties and assumptions about the Fund and economic factors. Accordingly, assumptions concerning future economic and other factors may prove to be incorrect at a future date.

Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, and actual events and results could differ materially from those expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements made by the Fund. Any number of important factors could contribute to these digressions, including, but not limited to, general economic, political and market factors in North America and internationally, interest and foreign exchange rates, global equity and capital markets, business competition, technological change, changes in government regulations, unexpected judicial or regulatory proceedings, and catastrophic events.

It should be stressed that the above-mentioned list of important factors is not exhaustive. You are encouraged to consider these and other factors carefully before making any investment decisions and you are urged to avoid placing undue reliance on forward-looking statements. Further, you should be aware of the fact that the Fund has no specific intention of updating any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, prior to the release of the next Management Report of Fund Performance.

Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Investment Objective and Strategies

Investment Objective: Fidelity American Balanced Currency Neutral Fund (Fund) seeks a similar return to and invests substantially all its assets in securities of its underlying fund Fidelity American Balanced Fund (Underlying Fund), which is also managed by Fidelity. The Underlying Fund aims to achieve long-term capital growth by investing primarily in a mix of equity securities, fixed income securities and money market instruments of U.S. issuers and other issuers from around the world. The Underlying Fund can invest in these securities either directly or indirectly through investments in other underlying funds. The Fund uses derivatives to try to minimize the exposure to currency fluctuations between foreign currencies in developed markets (such as the U.S. dollar, the Euro, or the Yen) and the Canadian dollar. The Fund may also hedge against other foreign currencies.

Strategies: The Underlying Fund's neutral mix guideline is approximately 65% equity securities and 35% fixed income securities and money market instruments. The portfolio managers may vary the Underlying Fund's asset mix from the neutral mix if they believe this will produce the best overall return. The portfolio managers generally keep the Underlying Fund's asset mix within the following ranges: 55%–75% equity securities and 25%–45% fixed income securities and money market instruments. The Underlying Fund may invest its assets in securities of other funds managed by Fidelity and ETFs managed by third parties, in accordance with its investment objectives. The Underlying Fund may invest in a wide variety of equity and fixed income securities, including common shares, investment-grade and high-yield fixed income securities, commercial mortgage-backed securities, emerging-market debt securities, convertible securities, and floating rate debt instruments.

Risk

The risks associated with investing in this Fund remain as discussed in the prospectus. Any changes to the Fund over the period have not affected the overall level of risk of the Fund.

The Fund is suitable for medium- to long-term investors who want to gain exposure to global equity and fixed income securities while seeking to lower their risk of currency fluctuations between developed market foreign currencies (including the U.S. dollar) and Canadian dollars, want the convenience of a diversified portfolio in a single fund, and can handle the volatility of returns generally associated with equity investments. The Fund is not an appropriate investment for investors with a short-term investment horizon. To invest in the Fund, investors should be willing to accept a low to medium level of risk. The suitability of the investment has not changed from what has been disclosed in the prospectus.

Results of Operations

Fidelity American Balanced Currency Neutral Fund, Series B, returned 17.5%, after fees and expenses, for the one-year period ended March 31, 2024. The net returns of the other series of this Fund are similar to those of Series B, except for differences attributable to expense structures. During the review period, U.S. equities, as represented by the S&P 500 Index - Hedged CAD, returned 28.5% (in Canadian dollar terms) and U.S. bonds, as represented by the Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index - Hedged CAD, returned 0.8% (in Canadian dollar terms).

Market overview:

U.S. equities, as measured by the S&P 500 Index, returned 29.9% in Canadian dollar terms and 29.9% in U.S. dollar terms, for the one-year period ended March 31, 2024.

U.S. equities rose during the review period, buoyed by signs of easing inflationary pressures, strong corporate earnings, and persistent economic growth. Positive investor sentiment around microchip manufacturers and companies with exposure to artificial intelligence supported growth in U.S. equities. Additionally, equity markets were supported by the U.S. Federal Reserve's rate-cut projections which generally showed that policymakers expect to cut rates in 2024. The U.S. economy expanded at an annual rate of 3.4% in the fourth quarter of 2023. Moreover, throughout the period, investor sentiment improved in anticipation of a resilient economy and the potential for continued moderation in inflation. These factors provided a favourable environment for equities against the backdrop of monetary tightening throughout 2022 and for most of 2023. In the policy meeting held in March 2024, the U.S. Federal Open Markets Committee held the Federal Funds rate unchanged to a target range of 5.25%–5.50%.

U.S. investment-grade bonds, as broadly represented by the Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index, returned 1.7% in Canadian dollar terms and 1.7% in U.S. dollar terms, for the one-year period ended March 31, 2024.

U.S. investment-grade bonds advanced in Canadian and U.S. dollar terms over the period under review. U.S. inflation fell from 4.9% in April 2023 to 3.2% in February 2024. Interest rates fell and Treasury and investment-grade bonds advanced in the fourth quarter of 2023, following higher than expected corporate earnings, favourable growth estimates, and signs of a cooling labour market, which fuelled hopes among market participants that the U.S. Federal Reserve's (the Fed) rate-hiking cycle may be coming to an end. During testimony to the U.S. congress, the Fed Chair Jerome Powell reiterated the central bank's commitment to potentially lowering interest rates later in 2024. Such reductions are contingent on continued progress toward achieving an inflation target of 2%. That said, a sense of caution prevailed among some market participants as core inflation data (which excludes food and energy prices), particularly in the non-housing services component, remains sticky.

Factors affecting performance:

During the review period, the Underlying Fund's investments in U.S. equities and global small-cap equities contributed the most to total returns. In addition, investments in U.S. investment-grade bonds contributed to total returns. There were no material detractors from the Underlying Fund's total returns.

Portfolio changes:

Fidelity American Balanced Currency Neutral Fund Management Discussion of Fund Performance – continued

During the review period, the portfolio managers of the Underlying Fund increased exposure to U.S. equities and reduced exposure to commodities through a gold ETF.

In fixed income, exposure to U.S. investment-grade bonds and U.S. high-yield commercial mortgage-backed securities was reduced due to what the portfolio managers believed there were investment opportunities with more attractive risk/return potential elsewhere.

Derivatives disclosure:

During the period, the Fund engaged in forward foreign currency contracts, in a manner consistent with its investment objectives and strategies, to hedge against the effect of currency fluctuations on the investment returns of the Fund. The use of forward contracts in this manner does not completely eliminate the impact of currency fluctuations on returns and the Fund's returns will differ from the local currency returns of the Underlying Fund's investments.

Recent Developments

Portfolio managers David Wolf and David Tulk observe that robust economic activity persists within developed markets, despite the more stringent monetary policy environment. They note that the likelihood of a soft landing has increased, because a potential productivity lift could help offset the risk of a recession. Although the effects of heightened productivity may not be immediately discernible, they believe that advancements in artificial intelligence, coupled with the ongoing prevalence of remote work arrangements, have likely contributed to productivity gains. These factors, alongside a resilient U.S. consumer base, have likely led to the elongation of the business cycle.

The managers also note that although market participants are debating the quantity and timing of potential rate cuts in 2024, the direction of monetary policy is likely to be toward loosening. Against this backdrop, the portfolio managers have become more positive, but continue to hold certain allocations that may provide some defense in a multi-asset portfolio. They believe the traditional method of holding bonds for diversification remains unreliable, given that the correlation between stocks and bonds continues to be positive. The managers aim to build a portfolio that is resilient in a wide range of outcomes. They believe constructing portfolios that are well diversified across asset classes, styles and regions is the right way to both protect and grow capital over the long run.

Effective September 19, 2023, Anne Bell of Mississauga, Ontario, became a member of the Independent Review Committee (IRC).

Related Party Transactions

Manager and Portfolio Adviser

The Fund is managed by Fidelity Investments Canada ULC (Fidelity). Fidelity is part of a broader collection of companies collectively known as Fidelity Investments.

Fidelity provides or arranges for the provision of all general management and administrative services required by the Fund in its day-to-day operations, bookkeeping, record-keeping and other administrative services for the Fund.

Fidelity is the portfolio adviser to the Fund and it provides investment advisory services to the Fund. Fidelity provides investment advice with respect to the Fund's investment portfolio and arranges for the acquisition and disposition of portfolio investments, including all necessary brokerage arrangements. The Fund pays Fidelity a monthly management and advisory fee for their services, based on the net asset value of each Series, calculated daily and payable monthly. The Fund paid Fidelity management and advisory fees of $822,000 for the period ended March 31, 2024.

Administration Fee

Fidelity charges the Fund a fixed administration fee in place of certain variable expenses. Fidelity, in turn, pays all of the operating expenses of the Fund, other than certain specified fund costs (e.g. the fees and expenses of the Independent Review Committee, taxes, brokerage commissions and interest charges). The Fund pays an annual rate, which is calculated on a tiered basis, based on the net asset value of each Series, calculated daily and payable monthly. The Fund paid Fidelity administration fees of $140,000 for the period ended March 31, 2024.

Independent Review Committee, Cross-Trading and In specie Transactions

Independent Review Committee

Fidelity has established an independent review committee (IRC) that acts as an impartial and independent committee to review and provide recommendations or, if appropriate, approvals respecting conflict of interest matters referred to it by Fidelity. The IRC prepares, at least annually, a report of its activities for securityholders of the Fund. The report is available at www.fidelity.ca or at the securityholder's request at no cost by contacting Fidelity, using the contact information available on the final page of this document.

Cross-Trading and In specie Transactions

The Fund received the approval and standing instructions from the IRC in order to:

- (i) engage in cross-trading, which is a form of interfund trading. A cross-trade occurs when the Fund purchases or sells portfolio securities from or to another Fund, a U.S. fund or a separately managed account, through a broker;
- (ii) permit the Fund, in certain circumstances, to purchase and redeem Fund securities in consideration for securities rather than cash of another investment fund not governed by NI 81-102, or a separately managed account, managed by Fidelity.

For each of the transactions in (i) and (ii) above, the IRC's standing instructions require Fidelity to act in accordance with its associated policies and procedures and applicable law, and comply with the conditions in each of the exemptive relief orders received, which, in the case of cross-trading, requires additional periodic reporting to the Ontario Securities Commission. The standing instructions also require that investment decisions in respect of these transactions (a) are free from any influence by an entity related to Fidelity and without taking into account any consideration relevant to an entity related to Fidelity; (b) represent the business judgment of Fidelity uninfluenced by considerations other than the best interests of the Fund; (c) comply with the applicable policies and procedures of Fidelity; and (d) achieve a fair and reasonable result for the Fund.

Financial Highlights Footnotes

- ^A This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual and/or unaudited interim financial statements. The net assets attributable to securityholders per security presented in the financial statements may differ from the net asset value calculated for fund pricing purposes. An explanation of these differences can be found in the notes to financial statements.
- ^B Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of securities outstanding at the relevant time. The increase (decrease) from operations is based on the weighted average number of securities outstanding over the financial period. This table is not intended to be a reconciliation of beginning to ending net assets per security.
- ^C Distributions were paid in cash or reinvested in additional securities of the Fund, or both, and excludes any applicable distributions of management fee reduction to securityholders. Distributions are presented based on management's best estimate of the tax character.
- ^D This information is provided as at period end of the year shown.
- ^E Prior period amounts may have been adjusted.
- ^F Management expense ratio is based on total expenses (excluding distributions, commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset values during the period, including the Fund's pro-rata share of estimated expenses incurred in any underlying investment fund, if applicable, (2024: —%, 2023: .01%, 2022: .01%, 2021: .01%, 2020: —%).
- ^G Effective June 30, 2016, the manager of the Fund has waived a portion of its administration fee and as of the date of the MRFP has continued to provide the Fund with such waivers. The manager may terminate the waiver at any time, at its sole discretion. It is not known when such waivers will be terminated.
- ^H The trading expense ratio represents total commissions, other portfolio transaction costs and dividends and interest expense on securities sold short expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period, including the Fund's pro-rata share of estimated trading costs incurred in any underlying investment fund, if applicable.
- ^I The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio adviser manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher the Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high portfolio turnover rate and the performance of the Fund. The portfolio turnover rate is calculated based on the lesser of purchases or sales of securities divided by the weighted average market value of portfolio securities owned by the Fund, excluding short-term securities. The portfolio turnover rate includes any proceeds from a short sale in the value of sales of securities and the cost of covering a short sale in the value of purchases of securities. For periods greater than six months, but less than a full fiscal year, the portfolio turnover rate is annualized. The portfolio turnover rate excludes any adjustment for in-kind transactions.

Management and Advisory Fees

Fidelity serves as manager and investment advisor of the Fund. The Fund pays Fidelity a monthly management and advisory fee for its services, based on the net asset value of each Series, calculated daily and payable monthly. Fidelity uses these management fees to pay for sales and trailing commissions to registered dealers on the distribution of the Fund securities, as well as for the general investment management expenses. Dealer compensation represents cash commissions paid by Fidelity to registered dealers during the period and includes upfront deferred sales charge and trailing commissions. This amount may, in certain circumstances, exceed 100% of the fees earned by Fidelity during the period. For new Funds or Series the amounts presented may not be indicative of longer term operating periods.

Past Performance

The performance information shown assumes that all distributions made by the Fund in the periods shown were reinvested in additional securities of the Fund. The performance information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or other optional charges that would have reduced returns or performance. How the Fund has performed in the past does not necessarily indicate how it will perform in the future.

Year-by-Year Returns

The following bar chart shows the Fund's annual performance for each of the years shown, and illustrates how the Fund's performance was changed from year to year. In percentage terms, the bar chart shows how much an investment made on the first day of each financial year would have grown or decreased by the last day of each financial year.

If the fund invests in another fund managed by Fidelity, which in turn invests more than 10% of its net assets in any third-tier fund also managed by Fidelity, the Top Issuers table would include a pro-rata look-through into the assets held by the third tier fund. This amount will be disclosed if it meets the criteria to be included in the Top Issuers table.

Where applicable, the information in the above tables includes the Fund's pro-rata share of the investment in any Fidelity managed underlying fund.

Comparative balances, as applicable, have been reclassified from country of incorporation to country of risk to align with current period presentation.

All tables within the Summary of Investment Portfolio section, except the Top Issuers table, contain audited annual information.

The Fund uses derivatives to try to minimize the exposure to currency fluctuations between foreign currencies in developed markets and the Canadian dollar. Any exposure to emerging market currencies cannot be hedged as an economic market for hedging these currencies does not exist.

Fidelity's mutual funds are sold by registered Investment Professionals. Each Fund has a simplified prospectus, which contains important information on the Fund, including its investment objective, purchase options, and applicable charges. Please obtain a copy of the prospectus, read it carefully, and consult your Investment Professional before investing. As with any investment, there are risks to investing in mutual funds. There is no assurance that any Fund will achieve its investment objective, and its net asset value, yield, and investment return will fluctuate from time to time with market conditions. Investors may experience a gain or loss when they sell their securities in any Fidelity Fund. Fidelity Global Funds may be more volatile than other Fidelity Funds as they concentrate investments in one sector and in fewer issuers; no single Fund is intended to be a complete diversified investment program. Past performance is no assurance or indicator of future returns. There is no assurance that either Fidelity Canadian Money Market Fund, Fidelity Canadian Money Market Investment Trust, Fidelity U.S. Money Market Fund or Fidelity U.S. Money Market Investment Trust will be able to maintain its net asset value at a constant amount. The breakdown of Fund investments is presented to illustrate the way in which a Fund may invest, and may not be representative of a Fund's current or future investments. A Fund's investments may change at any time.
